Priority service will be provided to taxpayers based on the Tax Counseling for the Elderly Program's legislative intent. This is in no way a violation of Title VI as described below.

Under no circumstances will the Internal Revenue Service tolerate discriminatory treatment of taxpayers by its employees, or individuals who volunteer or work at Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) and Tax Counseling for the Elderly (TCE) sites. No taxpayer shall be subject to discrimination on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin, reprisal, disability or age in educational programs or activities supported by the Department of the Treasury – Internal Revenue Service. Taxpayers with a disability may require a reasonable accommodation in order to participate or receive the benefits of a program or activity supported by the Department of the Treasury – Internal Revenue Service. Site Coordinators and Managers are responsible for ensuring that requests for reasonable accommodation are granted when the request is made by a qualified individual with a disability. If a qualified taxpayer believes that he or she has been discriminated against based on sex, race, color, national origin, disability, reprisal or age, they can file a complaint with the Department of the Treasury – Internal Revenue Service. All written complaints should be sent to: Director, Civil Rights Division, Internal Revenue Service, 1111 Constitution Avenue NW, Rm. 2413, Washington, DC 20224. For all inquiries concerning taxpayer civil rights, contact us at the address referenced above, or e-mail us at eeo.external.civil.rights@irs.gov.
